Make-Up Lab Writing Assignment
If you miss a lab presentation with your team, you need to complete a make-up writing assignment.

2-page reflection, single spaced.

Please address the following questions in your assignment.

- What did you do in connection to this project?
- How did this project relate to the theme we are dealing with in class?
- What would you change about how you completed this project?
- What was the most important takeaway for you from this project?
- How can you translate what you learned in this project to another thing that you are doing in your life?
- How did you work with your team? What was successful? What was challenging?
