WHAT IS FSAP?

The Freshman Summer Academic Program (FSAP) gives first-year students admitted to Washington University an introduction to the undergraduate academic and campus life at Washington University. The intensive, five-week academic program provides students the opportunity to earn six college credits, make friends, become familiar with the campus and surrounding neighborhoods, and register early for fall courses before other freshmen.

LIVING ARRANGEMENTS

Students will live together on campus in a traditional dorm. Students participating in the program are required to live on campus for the entire program.

RESTRICTIONS

FSAP participants may not have jobs because the program is a full-time commitment. Also, participants may not have cars on campus; all transportation is provided.

YOUR ADVANTAGES

- Earn Credit: Take two specially selected courses and earn six units of credit.
- Register for Fall Classes: Meet with your four-year academic advisor, discuss your academic interests, and register early for fall classes before other freshmen.
- Make New Friends: You will meet incoming freshmen from across the United States and around the world. Share your interests with students in architecture, art, arts and sciences, business, and entrepreneurship.
- Explore Campus: Become familiar with the layout of the campus and learn how to use resources such as the campus shuttles, Career Center, Writing Center, and Cornerstone.
- See St. Louis: Venture off campus to explore shopping and restaurants in the University City Loop. Walk to Forest Park – home of the St. Louis Zoo and St. Louis Art Museum. Volunteer in the community. Visit an amusement park, see plays at local theaters, enjoy concerts and watch Fourth of July fireworks at Fair St. Louis.

IMPORTANT DATES

- May 27: Application Deadline
- June 18: Move-In Day
- June 19: Orientation & Welcome Dinner
- June 20: Classes Begin
- June 22: Classes end
- June 23: Move-Out Day
- July 22: Classes end
- July 23: Move-Out Day, Return Home

EARN CREDIT

FSAP was the perfect balance of fun and productivity.

Hannah Moon, Portland, Oregon
College of Arts & Sciences

FSAP is an amazing opportunity for incoming freshmen. The program is well-organized and I had an amazing time over the summer.

Marqualis Cooper, Indianapolis, Indiana, College of Arts & Sciences

INTERESTED IN APPLYING?

Apply online at fsap.wustl.edu
E-mail fsap@artsci.wustl.edu for more information.
WHAT IS FSAP?
The Freshman Summer Academic Program (FSAP) gives first-year students admitted to Washington University an introduction to the undergraduate academic and campus life at Washington University. The intensive, five-week academic program provides students the opportunity to earn six college credits, make friends, become familiar with the campus and surrounding neighborhoods, and register early for fall courses before other freshmen.

Students attend group events to get to know each other and St. Louis. The events include activities such as bowling, roller skating, demolition ball, an indoor trampoline park, movies, a talent show, and costume nights.

YOUR ADVANTAGES

EARN CREDIT: Take two specially selected courses and earn six units of credit.

REGISTER FOR FALL CLASSES: Meet with your four-year academic advisor, discuss your academic interests, and register early for fall classes before other freshmen.

MAKE NEW FRIENDS: You will meet incoming freshmen from across the United States and around the world. Share your interests with students in architecture, art, arts and sciences, business, and engineering. Imagine having a community of friends before the school year begins!

EXPLORE CAMPUS: Become familiar with the layout of the campus and learn how to use resources such as the campus shuttles, the Career Center, the Writing Center, and Cornerstone.

SEE ST. LOUIS: Venture off campus to explore shopping and restaurants in the University City Loop. Walk to Forest Park – home of the St. Louis Zoo and St. Louis Art Museum. Volunteer in the community. Visit an amusement park, see plays at local theaters, enjoy concerts and watch Fourth of July fireworks at Fair St. Louis.

FAST FACTS

ELIGIBILITY: All admitted first-year undergraduate students entering Washington University are eligible.

CURRICULUM: All FSAP participants take Introduction to Writing About Literature, and will choose one of the following courses: Foundations for Calculus, Topics in Chemistry, Introduction to Psychology, Introduction to Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, Lincoln and the Historical Imagination, and Biology of the Brain.

COST: The total cost of the program is $4,050 (Program fee of $4,000, plus a non-refundable application fee of $50). This cost includes tuition, housing, meals, and all weekend social activities, but not books or travel costs to and from campus. Financial aid is available.

LIVING ARRANGEMENTS: All participants will live together on campus in a traditional dorm. Students participating in the program are required to live on campus for the entire program.

RESTRICTIONS: FSAP participants may not have jobs because the program is a full-time commitment. Also, participants may not have cars on campus; all transportation is provided.

INTERESTED IN APPLYING?
Apply online at fsap.wustl.edu

VISIT FSAP.WUSTL.EDU FOR MORE INFORMATION.

IMPORTANT DATES

May 27....................... Application Deadline
June 18........................... Move-In Day
June 19........Oriention & Welcome Dinner
June 20......................... Classes Begin
July 22........................... Classes End
July 23........Move-Out Day, Return Home
I am very happy I did FSAP. It was an amazing way to spend my summer. Also, getting 6 credits in 5 weeks was amazing!

Atiyana Evelyn, Milwaukee, Wisconsin
Olin Business School

I see my decision to do FSAP as one of the best decisions I have ever made. FSAP is not just about taking classes, it is about starting a new phase of your life.

Andrew Sweren, New York, New York
College of Arts & Sciences

FSAP prepared me for college level academic study. The writing class was extremely helpful.

Songyuan Geng, Tiyuan, China
College of Arts & Sciences

FSAP is a great way to get acquainted with the campus and get a preview of freshman year.

Mackenzie Phillips, Brentwood, Tennessee
College of Arts & Sciences